

To avoid delays in processing, please include ALL of the requested information when applying for the scholarship.

Complete the attached application form and include the following with your application:

- A copy of a letter of acceptance from an institute of learning, university or college into a program of studies for wildlife, wildlife management or application of Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit in wildlife.
- A copy of your curriculum vitae or resume.
- A piece of work (essay, report or project on a wildlife or wildlife management subject) that demonstrates your interest and competency. Particular attention will be paid to examples of the use and application of Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit in wildlife or wildlife management.
- A brief statement (maximum of two pages) on personal and academic objectives that emphasize how your proposed course of studies will contribute to wildlife management in Nunavut.
- The names and contact information of three references that are not family members.
- An outline of current and applied-for sources of funding (i.e. scholarships, bursaries, grants or other sources of income) must be declared.
- The completed application form.
