RECONCILIATION

“... Reconciliation is about establishing and maintaining a mutually respectful relationship between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal peoples in this country. In order for that to happen, there has to be awareness of the past, an acknowledgement of the harm that has been inflicted, atonement for the causes, and action to change behaviour.”

- Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, 2015

4. INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE

- Conservation in times of decline
- Socio-cultural value
- Caribou behaviour

- Dene ts'ı́ı́ (way of life)
- Dene ɁeɁa (law) grounded in stories
 - Respect, sharing
- Four program areas (harvest, habitat, governance, knowledge)
 - Ɂekwe'gha máhsı ts'ı́ı́we (ceremonial harvest)
 - Dene bére káts'ı́ı́we (alternative harvest)

- Traditional Dene structures more effective than TAH
- More comprehensive conservation tools
- Dene code or enforcement system (ENR as last resort)
- Majority yárégo (younger male) and minimal tsída (female) ceremonial harvest
- TAH “only if required for conservation” (SDMCLCA 13.5.2)

SRRB 2016 BLUENOSE EAST HEARING FINDINGS

RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITY, DENE TS'ILĪ

“Dehlá Got'ine, have a constitutionally-protected right to hunt caribou, but hunting is integral to the culture and survival of Dehlá Got'ine. It is more than a right – it is a sacred responsibility that must be fulfilled for the Dehlá Got'ine and the caribou to maintain their relationship.”

– David Codzi, Colville Lake, 2016

LEARNING ACROSS REGIONS

6. CONCLUSION

A challenge for our time

SAHTÚ CO-MANAGEMENT IN A RECONCILIATION FRAME

- Approaching 30 years since the land claim agreement
- Ecological change and crises
- Resurgence in Indigenous environmental governance
- An exciting time – time for trying new things
- Learning by doing, evaluation and planning

MOVING FORWARD ACROSS BOUNDARIES: SAHTÚ LESSONS LEARNED

- Training for all partners in new-old approaches
- Community-to-community meetings and joint planning with respect to shared concerns
 - Ways of life
 - Indigenous laws
 - Shared territory and wildlife
- Community delegate participation in ACCWM meetings
- Annual Sahtú Public Listening Sessions and other Public Hearings
- Other forums for sharing knowledge
